

Camino Viejo #1 Site Tour

Join Van Newville and Josh Meister on a tour of Camino Viejo # 1 site. The site is a Huhugam habitation site with remnants of stone and adobe walls, pottery spreads, lithics, and some interesting rock piles. El Camino Viejo is an hour east of the hotel and can be driven to with any type of vehicle. We will meet at 8:30 am at Florence Junction - north side of junction of Hwys 60 and 79 (there is parking). The tour length is 1/2 mile and will take approximately 1 1/2 to 2 hours to complete with no elevation gain. This site is on State Trust Land therefore only Site Stewards who have completed training will be allowed to attend, please bring your Site Steward card with you.

Meeting location: meet Van Newville and Josh Meister at 8:30 am Sunday October 31st on the north side of the Florence Junction of highways 60 and 79.
