

Arlington Mesa Tour

Join Doug Newton and Kim Gilles on a tour of the Arlington Mesa site in the Tonopah Region west of Phoenix. This Hohokam site dates between AD 500 to 1050 and includes a ball court, rock alignments, trash mounds, summit trail and a nice view of Powers Butte across the Gila River. The tour length is one mile and will take approximately 1 1/2 to 2 hours to complete with no elevation gain. We will meet at 9:00 am at the Cracker Barrel Restaurant located at 1-10 and Watson Rd. From the restaurant we will drive to the site, plenty of parking and any type of vehicle can be driven. This site is on State Trust Land therefore only Site Stewards who have completed training will be allowed to attend, please bring your Site Steward card with you.
